Module 7 – Chapter: The Law of Prosperity – Your Personal, Private Stash of Creation Energy

This is Module 7 – Your Personal, Private Stash of Creation Energy

I know it's easy to worry about not having enough money.

But remember, worrying is a choice - and you can choose something different. Let's explore your energy around money.

What would it feel like to have more money than you need? What would it feel like for all your bills to be paid and to be able to go shopping for yourself and others? What would it feel like to have more than enough?

Florence spoke the word for people to manifest as their reality whatever it was, they wanted. She KNEW that her students had the power to shape raw creation energy into material form – and you do, too.

Through her energy, her words and her unwavering belief, she held the space for her students to step into their power and create what they wanted.

Years ago, when I was connecting with my spiritual guides and like many of you, Jesus is one of my main guides, He showed me raw creation energy. During this connection, I found myself standing in what appeared to be a brightly lit room and there was a HUGE opening in the wall. Through this opening I could see a dark blue substance with lots of sparkles, like what the Milky Way looks like on a dark night with no city lights. It was magnificent.

I asked, “What is that?” and Jesus said it was energy. He explained that it was raw creation energy and all we need to do to create something with it, is believe we're going to receive what we want. He explained that our belief energy pulls this raw creation energy from the Field of Potentiality. He showed me how the energy of our thoughts blends with this raw creation energy and molds and forms it into what we want.

He showed me that the brightly lit room is the light of the Divinity within us - our connection to All That Is and the opening in the wall represented our access to creation energy.

The true source of our prosperity is not in the job we have, where we live, who we know or how much education we have. The true source of our prosperity is the Divinity within us – our personal, private access to creation energy.

Florence teaches us that everything we want - everything that makes our heart sing with joy is already made manifest at a higher plane of existence. Its already here - right here, we just don't have the "eyes-to-see" it yet.

She shares with us that everything we bring to fruition in material form in our reality comes THROUGH us - it comes through our energy - like Jesus showed me.

When Jesus walked the soils of Mother Earth, He had the power to manifest - changing water to wine, feeding multitudes with only a few loaves and fishes. He knew He had the power to transcend what the human eye sees, and the human brain believes.

...and so do you - you have that same power.

I fully believe you have the power to create whatever you can dream of that brings you joy. I believe you even have the power to heal your own body. Many, many books are written by people who have done just that.

In the book, You Can Heal Your Life, Louise Hay writes about healing the painful shadow fear energy within her to the higher vibration of love to heal her body of cancer.

We're living in a time that we're able to transcend the teachings and limited beliefs of the physical world. That time is NOW!

So... right now... we're going to do an exercise together.

First, I want you to identify something you want to create in your life. It can be something like a new job, new car, new home or new relationship - or it could be something small, like up front parking everywhere you go. Choose something.

So, the second thing I want you to do is assess your vibration - is it of love or above - do you feel the energy of how exciting it would be to have what you've chosen? Or do you feel some resistance? For the sake of experiencing this together, I'm going to ask you to choose something that you can grasp the love or above, joy filled energy - without resistance.

When you feel the excitement and joy of what it would feel like to receive what you want to create, your three levels of consciousness are in alignment.

Take a deep breath and breathe into a full Body YES - of the joy you'd feel at having received what you want.

Now we're going to access the energy of your higher self - the Divinity within and your creation energy.

To help us achieve this energy shift, we're going to begin by quieting our mind chatter with the Quiet Your Mind exercise – I gave this to you as a bonus in one of the other modules – so we begin:

Place your feet flat on the floor. With your hands gently in your lap, palms up and close your eyes.

Focus your attention on your heart and take a deep breath in. Slowly exhale. Take another slow, deep breath...

Now shift your focus to gratitude of the blessings in your life. Embrace things that you are grateful for. Feel the emotional fulfillment of gratitude. Take deep, full breaths of gratitude.

Ask yourself these questions – don't try to answer, just ask:

Who am I?

What do I want?

What's my purpose?

What makes me happy?

Now simply allow yourself to be aware of your physical body. Your hands in your lap – your feet on the floor.

Now focus again on your heart – allow yourself to hear the beating of your heart as a sound or feel it as a sensation.

Take a few deep breaths in...

We continue with eyes closed - breathing deeply...

You are a limitless being of love and light...

You are good enough, worthy and deserving of all the things that makes your heart sing with joy.

Now, with quiet, assertive conviction, repeat after me:

I DESERVE to be HAPPY!

I am limitless...

I AM the Master Creator of My Reality

Now we ask our angels of creation to join us - to come close and help us achieve the highest vibration of love possible. Take a deep breath....

Together, we hold the safe space to tap into the love vibration of your higher self.

Take another deep breath and allow yourself to access your creation energy.

You may see the sparkles of possibility, or you may feel it as a limitless, bold energy, or you may simply have an awareness that it's there.

We ask the creation angels to help us shift the three aspects of our consciousness into alignment – knowing with every cell of your body that you deserve to be, do, and have whatever your heart desires.

As your angels hold you in this beautiful space of possibility, take a deep breath and allow yourself to feel the surge of love pulsating throughout all aspects of your essence - your conscious, subconscious and superconscious.

Take a deep breath as we ask the creation angels to come closer still... to continue expanding and intensifying your shift to the highest vibration of love.

Take another deep breath and with each deep breath embrace the vibration of love - notice the size of your access to creation energy -- it gets larger with each breath.

You ARE limitless possibility...

You can be... do... and have anything and everything that makes your heart sing with joy.

Its already made manifest at a higher plane of existence...

There is more than enough creation energy to fulfill all your dreams.

It's here for you now and always...

What does the energy FEEL like to receive what you've chosen to create?

Open your arms wide to welcome the energy of creation into form.

Take a really deep breath and breathe life into what you wish to create.

The angels of creation assist and support you...

Now take another really deep breath and take in the excitement of what you've created...

What does it look like? What does it feel like???

Let's ground and anchor this energy... Allow roots from your feet to go down into Mother Earth, all the way down to the love light at her center... Your roots wrap around a black tourmaline sphere. After wrapping around this sphere, the roots draw love back up through the earth, through your feet and legs to your heart. Connecting you as one, with the love energy of Mother Earth.

Now, again, take another deep breath in and allow yourself to be aware of your physical body - your feet flat on the floor - your hands in your lap. Bring this love with you into this moment. When you're ready, open your eyes.

When we open our heart to the limitless possibility that we are, our higher vibration expands the access to more than enough creation energy to create whatever brings us joy and happiness.

The true source of your prosperity is within you and I believe in your ability to create something new and different in your life - something that you love!

You are the Master Creator of your life and you have the power to CHOOSE the energy you wish to create with. It's time to understand that your reality depends on you claiming your power to choose. You have the power to banish lack forever from your life, and now is the time!

This completes Module 7. Now go to the worksheet.
