Module 18 – Chapter: Casting the Burden – Want Energy and Treatment for Prosperity

This is Module 18 – Want Energy and Treatment for Prosperity

So, what is want energy – and just how powerful is it?

Want Energy is the energy we create from.

Now we understand that as an energetic being, we're always manifesting our experiences – always – no matter what moment it is, we're manifesting from it. This means that whatever our energy is, we attract life experiences of like vibration.

And as we've discussed before, we're vibrating in either fear energy or love energy - never both.

I'll say that again... No matter what energy we're vibrating in, whether it's love energy or fear energy, that energetic vibration is attracting experiences of the same vibration – all day long – every day – every week – every year.

Whether consciously or subconsciously the energy we're vibrating in is our want energy.

As a result, from that want energy we create something that stirs happiness within us or something we don't want that causes us to be unhappy, anxious, or worried.

When we firmly understand this, it's easy to grasp how vitally important evaluating and course correcting your Want Energy to the highest vibration of love is critical to living a happy life.

When we want money to pay a debt or bill because we don't have it or we want a new place to live because we're being forced to move, there can be fear involved.

So, when you decide you want something - no matter what it is... FIRST discern, what is your Want Energy? And these are the two questions to ask yourself:

Number 1. ...and we'll use money as the example - could be money, job, relationship, home, could be anything – just ask yourself, "Do I want this money because of the joy it will bring me to pay the obligation?"

Or if you want a new or different job, "Do I want a new job because of the joy it would bring me to have a new job?"

... and the second question:

2. Do I want this money because I don't have the money to pay the obligation and I feel shame, guilt, and fear?

Identify your want energy and if it's anything less than love, set your intention to shift the energy to the love vibration.

The Game of Life for the 21st Century Module Transcript

So, the specific questions are:

1. Do I want _____ because of the joy it will bring me?
2. Do I want _____ because of the fear I feel at not having it?

You'll just want to word them to fit what you want.

Let's look at a new home here quickly...

Question #1. Do I want a new home because of the joy it will bring me to move into a new home that I love?

Or question #2. Do I want a new home because I'm being forced to move and I'm afraid I won't find anything I can afford?

Even if you don't have the money to pay the debt or you're being forced to move, you can still shift your energy to the joy it would give you to pay the debt and the joy it would give you to move into your new home.

You have the ability and power to shift your want energy from less than love fear - of not having or being forced - to the love or above energy of the joy it will bring you to receive whatever it is that you want.

I'm going to invite you to step back as an observer of your life and take a look at all the things you want to transform - all the things you want to be, do, or have that aren't yours --- yet... Evaluate your want energy - if you discover there's fear involved, take the time you need to shift the want energy from fear to love.

Remember - you're not faking it till you make it and you're not lying to yourself. You're creating a new reality through the want energy of your thoughts!

This experience goes hand-in-hand with what we learned about burden energy in Module #17. No matter how many negative thoughts are running around in your brain and subconscious, STOP them as quickly as you can and shift your energy from the pain of fear to love and move on with your day in love energy. If you're having trouble getting control of your thoughts, you can use the super quick Quiet Your Mind exercise from the bonus section of Module #4.

Another powerful tool is to shift through Gratitude. Take a deep breath and stop the negative flow by focusing on something that you're grateful for. Then take a deeper look at the want energy as an observer and shift it fully from fear to love.

An example is not having enough money to pay a bill. Identify and accept the feelings of anxiety, stress, anger, shame, guilt, all those feelings at not having the money. Then accept your power to create a higher outcome and focus on the relief and happiness of the bill already Being Paid.

The Game of Life for the 21st Century Module Transcript

Again, this is not faking it till you make it and you're not lying to yourself. You're accelerating the wheels of manifesting the highest possible outcome.

An exciting affirmation and mantra is this: "I don't know how this bill is paid in full, I only know that it is, and I am fulfilled" – this is from The One Command by Asara Lovejoy. The affirmation/mantra releases the need to know how something is going to happen and shifts you from fear to love by claiming/stating that you're fulfilled.

One other thing... something we want to remember is this: we all want money, but what we really want is what money will buy. So, focus on what you want to happen – you want the bill paid, so focus on the bill BEING Paid. The money may come from a credit applied to your account as a refund for your deposit, or a credit for a previous overpayment – could be anything. My point is the payment may not come through money passing through your hand – let the universe decide how the payment is actually made – but be open to any action steps you're guided to take.

Treatment

Now we're going to do a treatment together to open YOUR vast reservoir of prosperity!

Throughout The Game of Life, Florence speaks the word for students who want a large sum of money. She speaks the word for what they want and gives thanks that the student has received it. Together, as one, Florence and the student create the energetic container for the money, and it arrives.

The POWER of a treatment is the energy behind it – it's the energetic container that's created.

With everything you've learned, what is your belief in your ability to really have what you want - and live the life that you want? What is the energy of your belief?

Florence knew without doubt that the money her students wanted was in their Field of Potentiality – it may not look like the student thought it would look, but it was there. I know this for you... I KNOW with every cell of my being that YOU deserve - and have at a higher plane of existence Great Prosperity, Joy and Happiness - in whatever form that is for you. No matter what your heart longs for to bring it joy, whatever form that is best for you... what you want is already yours – and you have the power within you to manifest it as your reality.

Let's open the way for you to manifest what you want.

First, I'm going to share with you the "Spoken Word of the Treatment" - I'm going to tell you what it is, then I'll say it slow enough for you to write it down. By writing it down you'll be able to access the energy more clearly.

Then we'll get settled into the intention, quiet our minds, and shift powerfully into the energy of prosperity and abundance. When we do this, allow yourself to experience whatever is revealed to you.

The Game of Life for the 21st Century Module Transcript

I've asked the angels to infuse this recording with prosperity energy and to maintain it.

I want to preface this Treatment by stating and CLAIMING again:

I KNOW with every cell of my being that YOU-deserve - and have at a higher plane of existence Great Prosperity, Joy and Happiness - in whatever form that is for you – and you have the power within you to manifest it as your reality.

Now I'll speak the word for us as a group, then speak personifying it, then I'll say it slowly, so you'll have time to write it down... we begin:

I speak the word initially for The Game of Life for the 21st century community...

Infinite Spirit, open the way for the immediate Supply for everyone in the Game of Life for the 21st Century Program - all that is ours by Divine Right now reaches us - through a tremendous flow of prosperity - under grace, in miraculous ways - for the highest good of all - Thank you, thank you, Thank YOU!

Now the personalized version...

Infinite Spirit, open the way for MY Immediate Supply, let all that is mine by Divine Right now reach me, through a tremendous flow of prosperity under grace, in miraculous ways for the highest good of all... thank you, thank you, thank you...

Now I'll say it slower so you can write it down:

Infinite Spirit,
open the way
for My Immediate Supply,
let all that is mine
by Divine Right
now reach me
through a tremendous flow of prosperity

Now I'll say that one more time:

Infinite Spirit, open the way for My Immediate Supply, let all that is mine by Divine Right now reach me, through a tremendous flow of prosperity under grace, in miraculous ways for the highest good of all... thank you, thank you, thank you...

Now we'll quiet our mind....

The Game of Life for the 21st Century Module Transcript

Be open to guidance for action steps that may be necessary to bring your avalanches of prosperity to fruition - - all those things that make your heart sing. Then be OPEN to what that lead may be. If you get a hunch or feel guided to do something, but you're unsure, ask for clarification of the lead! The action step may be simply to hold the energy of creation complete!

It's my experience that guidance is always provided - it's up to us to allow ourselves to have the eyes to see, the ears to hear or the wisdom to follow the knowing within.

This completes Module 18. Now go to the worksheet.
